"THE TURMOIL"

Universal Jewel

Featuring GEO. HACKATHORNE
and An All-Star Cast

JAMES SHERIDAN, Sr., has made himself the captain of many industries and the undisputed financial king of his city. He wants his three sons to be like him. Jim, Jr., is willing. Roscoe is too willing, if he is to be happy with his passionate, selfish, trouble-making wife, Sybil. Bibbs is entirely unwilling. He is of a poetic nature and cares little for industry.

Another family, high in social position but low in finances, lives near the Sheridans. There comes a point when Mary Vertrees, the daughter, finds it necessary to seek a marriage with Jim Sheridan, Jr., to save the family name from financial disaster. A sudden catastrophe in the gigantic warehouse building program of Jim Sheridan, Jr., kills him.

Sheridan now looks to his other sons. Roscoe, usually a willing worker, is worried by his wife's actions. Sybil, though he does not know it, is in love with Bobby Lamhorn. Roscoe breaks under the strain of worry and Sheridan is forced to consider Bibbs, the unreliable, as his heir and future captain of the Sheridan interests. Bibbs has made a friend of Mary Vertrees, a point which Sybil, the trouble-maker, carefully notes. Sybil succeeds in breaking up Bibbs' tender romance and making out of him a silent re-cluse. He drives himself at business and soon is the real captain of the Sheridan interests.
